Highlights from the Mayor

Mayor Duane Rosenberg - drosenberg@newcarrolltonmd.gov - 301-459-6100

Honoring Councilmember Richard “Dick” Bechtold

I thought that 15 years on the City Council prepared me well for the Mayor’s office. I was completely thrown off track when my first week as Mayor, I was overwhelmed by the passing of former Mayor Andrew C. Hanko, and the activities planned to commemorate Mayor Hanko’s life and contributions. I gained some experience in dealing with community grief by being there for the Hanko family during the time of their loss.

I was unprepared for the passing of our Council Chairman Richard Bechtold at the end of December 2018. Dick was a daily visitor to my City Hall office. A true fighter, Dick would talk with me about plans through 2020 and beyond. He even toyed with the possible run for another Council term at age 89. I watched Dick move many a cause through ultimate resolutions, but he could not beat the lung cancer that metastasized and took him from us with little warning. We held a local memorial service at City Hall after the January Police Foundation Meeting on January 12, 2019. So many kind testimonials were shared. I cannot think of a better way for us as a community to comfort the Bechtold family, or a better farewell to a great resident.

Thank you for your many years of community involvement and your dedication to the town you loved so much. I’m sharing some of my favorite pictures of Dick. The photos depict well the Mayor and Council support for Dick towards the end, and the camaraderie that made working as a team with Mr. Bechtold a joy. It was with great pleasure that I, in my first months as Mayor, presented the new Administration’s agenda to the Council, led by Dick. I was always confident that deliberations would not be contentious, and that Dick would maintain order through positive relationships, humor, and good sense of how to move things along.

December 19, 2018 - Council Meeting

As a final note on Dick, I’d be safe in concluding that he viewed the creation of the New Carrollton Police Foundation as one of his biggest accomplishments on behalf of the City. Please be assured that the Foundation remains a vital part of the New Carrollton community. The Police Foundation Meetings are at 9:00 a.m. on every second Saturday of the month at City Hall. Hope to see you there.

William Boisvert Passing

Coincidentally, long-term resident, William Boisvert, passed on the same day as Mr. Bechtold. While I never worked directly with Mr. Boisvert, he served on the City Council from 1989 -1993. Bill moved from the City years ago. The reports that I received indicated that Bill spent his final years in assisted living and passed of natural causes at age 97. The reports of Mr. Boisvert's earlier life in New Carrollton describe him as an active neighbor who shared his many talents with the community to the benefit of us all. We could be so fortunate to have a few more Mr. Boisvert's among us these days.

Spring Projects

The City has collaborated with the Anacostia Watershed Society (AWS), the University of Maryland, and Prince George's County to begin community beautification and other infrastructure projects. Our Public Works Department and our City Green Team are working closely with AWS to redesign the storm water channels in the City. Particular attention will be given to the area below Charles Carroll Middle School and near the Community Garden located on Lamont Drive. There's lot of potential for park development in that area, and the AWS is excited about making changes that will facilitate storm water drainage. The University of Maryland has also agreed to work with the City on reviewing and determining our best options for recycling. We've been faced with recycling fees costing more than tipping fees for disposing of trash at the landfills by the County. I'm excited to see how these efforts materialize. Residents should be seeing activity along Westbrook Drive and Carrollton Parkway with the arrival of spring weather. Stay tuned!

Mayor Rosenberg & Roberta Phillips,
PGC Library CEO

Welcome Roberta Phillips

The County Library Board recently completed its recruitment efforts and hired Roberta Phillips as the new County Library CEO. Ms. Phillips is relocating from South Carolina to assume her new position. It was my pleasure to visit with Ms. Phillips when she paid a visit to our New Carrollton Branch on January 30, 2019. Ms. Phillips was impressed with the recent renovations to the New Carrollton Branch. We look forward to having her attend our Friends of the County Library meetings and hope she's a regular visitor to the New Carrollton Branch. Got a picture of the two of us on January 30.

Senior Citizens Lunches at City Hall

I can't say enough nice things about our seniors' daily lunch program at City Hall. Three bucks gets you a full course meal. Unlimited hot/cold beverages and daily card games. Bus transportation available. Call City Hall if you have any questions, or show up and join the crew of regulars. For more information about the program please call 301-459-6100.

Maryland Mayors Association

It was a great honor and privilege to represent the City at my first Maryland Mayors Association Conference in Annapolis. It was an exceptional event. Some 65 mayors from throughout the state gathered to collaborate on issues that affect all of us, to share helpful stories, to receive legislative updates from the MML, enjoyed an evening at the Governor's Mansion with Governor Hogan, and to visit our State Delegates and Senators at the State House. We mayors were all issued a yellow scarf and were recognized by name and jurisdiction in both the House and Senate sessions we attended. Lots of take-away ideas that I hope to apply to our operations.

Boy Scout Troop 214

Troop 214 meets on Tuesday nights at the Elks Lodge on Kenilworth Avenue. It's a great program for our youth.

Please feel free to contact me at City Hall if you or anyone you know is interested in Scouting at 301-459-6100.

Residents of the City of New Carrollton:

I hope this newsletter finds you warm as the winter season and polar vortexes are behind us. Described below are a few highlights of the past few months. Please feel free to reach out to me at any time to share your thoughts, ask questions or otherwise engage in dialogue about our great City.

City of New Carrollton Green Team: The City Council previously approved the City's participation in the Sustainable Maryland Certified Program, which is a program that strives to educate the community about sustainable activities and to develop initiatives supporting sustainable local government practices. The City of New Carrollton kicked off its new Green Team with an initial meeting on January 8 with training conducted by Mike Hunninghake of Sustainable Maryland. The make-up of the Green Team is impressive, with members including City Councilmember Roy Peterson, Assistant City Administrative Officer Karen Ruff, a local pastor from Trinity Moravian Church, four teachers representing Carrollton Elementary School and Charles Carroll Middle School, two apartment complex managers representing Heritage Square and Carrollton Manor Apartments, and several City residents. Also in attendance were Mayor Rosenberg and myself. The City has already been moving forward on sustainability projects in some areas, including Tree City USA designation, two community gardens, and several energy efficiency retrofits. More efforts are planned for the coming year, including electric vehicles, LED streetlights and the creation of a native plant meadow. The City looks forward to embarking on this new journey with the capable assistance of the City's Green Team!

Going Green - New Electric Vehicles on the Way: The City is moving forward on other green initiatives aimed at reducing our carbon footprint through the purchase of electric vehicles. As our older stock of gas powered Code Enforcement and Parking Enforcement vehicles reach their end of life and need to be replaced, we will be looking to do that with all electric cars (Nissan Leaf, Chevrolet Bolt, Honda Clarity). In addition to reducing fuel costs, electric vehicles have a much lower ongoing maintenance cost. With state grants and other creative funding, the cost recovery is only a few years.

FY2020 Budget Preparations - Seeking Citizen Input: A reminder from our last newsletter that the FY2020 budget preparation is underway and we are encouraging citizen input into this process. We will be holding workshop sessions to go through the proposed budget in April that are open to the public. If you have a question about the budget process, or would otherwise like more information, feel free to reach out to my office.

Fraud Against Seniors

- The FBI's Common Fraud Schemes web page provides tips on how you can protect yourself and your family from fraud. Senior citizens especially should be aware of fraud schemes for the following reasons:
- Senior citizens are most likely to have a "nest egg," to own their home, and/or to have excellent credit—all of which make them attractive to con artists.
- People who grew up in the 1930s, 1940s, and 1950s were generally raised to be polite and trusting. Con artists exploit these traits, knowing that it is difficult or impossible for these individuals to say "no" or just hang up the telephone.
- Older Americans are less likely to report a fraud because they don't know who to report it to, are too ashamed at having been scammed, or don't know they have been scammed. Elderly victims may not report crimes, for example, because they are concerned that relatives may think the victims no longer have the mental capacity to take care of their own financial affairs.
- When an elderly victim does report the crime, they often make poor witnesses. Con artists know the effects of age on memory, and they are counting on elderly victims not being able to supply enough detailed information to investigators. In addition, the victims' realization that they have been swindled may take weeks—or more likely, months—after contact with the fraudster. This extended time frame makes it even more difficult to remember details from the events.
- Senior citizens are more interested in and susceptible to products promising increased cognitive function, virility, physical conditioning, anti-cancer properties, and so on. In a country where new cures and vaccinations for old diseases have given every American hope for a long and fruitful life, it is not so unbelievable that the con artists' products can do what they claim.

Tips for Avoiding Credit Card Fraud

Don't give out your credit card number online unless the site is secure and reputable. Sometimes a tiny icon of a padlock appears to symbolize a higher level of security to transmit data. This icon is not a guarantee of a secure site, but provides some assurance.

- Don't trust a site just because it claims to be secure
- Before using the site, check out the security/encryption software it uses
- Make sure you are purchasing merchandise from a reputable source
- Do your homework on the individual or company to ensure that they are legitimate
- Obtain a physical address rather than simply a post office box and a telephone number, and call the seller to see if the telephone number is correct and working
- Send an e-mail to the seller to make sure the e-mail address is active, and be wary of those that utilize free e-mail services where a credit card wasn't required to open the account
- Consider not purchasing from sellers who won't provide you with this type of information
- Check with the Better Business Bureau from the seller's area
- Check out other websites regarding this person/company
- Don't judge a person or company by their website; flashy websites can be set up quickly
- Be cautious when responding to special investment offers, especially through unsolicited e-mail
- Be cautious when dealing with individuals/companies from outside your own country
- If possible, purchase items online using your credit card. You can often dispute the charges if something goes wrong. Make sure the transaction is secure when you electronically send your credit card number.
- Keep a list of all your credit cards and account information along with the card issuer's contact information. If anything looks suspicious or you lose your credit card(s), contact the card issuer immediately

If you are a victim of a crime call the Police at 301-352-1200. For all emergencies call 911.

Arbor Day

On Wednesday, April 3, 2019 tree planting will be at the Municipal Center.

Being a Tree City USA is a national recognition that New Carrollton is committed to maintaining a healthy and sustainable urban tree canopy. New Carrollton invests in its tree canopy by actively evaluating and maintaining our curb trees throughout the City, as well as trees in our park areas. We look for opportunities to plant new trees each year, and prune any damaged, broken, diseased or otherwise hazardous trees to make sure our urban canopy is healthy and safe. Celebrating Arbor Day is an annual re-commitment by our Mayor and City to recognizing the value that a healthy urban tree canopy adds to the community. Some of trees' many benefits include reducing energy costs by their shade and wind buffering qualities, assisting in storm-water management and erosion control, and beautifying the community. Trees and green spaces have also been shown to build stronger neighbor connections and improve community relations.
